

Permission to Use Photo, Video and/or First Name

In accordance with provincial privacy legislation,<sup>1</sup> Young Life of Canada (Young Life) is seeking your consent to collect, retain, use and disclose photographs, videos, and/or images of teenagers and groups of teenagers in a variety of publications, and on the Young Life website for the purpose of building the Young Life community and informing others about Young Life, its programs, and activities.

Images may be used in:

- Young Life communications such as newsletters, e-blasts, brochures, and reports;
- Young Life websites, social media sites or video channels such as Twitter, Instagram or Vimeo; or
- Videos, handbooks, or manuals published on the Young Life intranet or on paper for internal training purposes.

_____ Yes, I give my consent for Young Life to collect, retain, use and publicly disclose my child's image for purposes consistent with the above. I hereby release and discharge all parties from any and all claims and demands. I understand that images posted on the internet may be stored and accessed outside of Canada.

_____ No, I do not give my consent to the use and disclosure of my child's image for the above purposes.

I understand that I may rescind this permission by contacting: _____@younglife.ca.

_____ Teenager Name	_____ Teenager Signature	_____ Date
_____ Parent / Guardian Name	_____ Parent / Guardian Signature	_____ Date
_____ Parent / Guardian Phone	_____ Parent / Guardian Email

<sup>1</sup> Provincial privacy legislation includes: BC's Personal Information Protection Act, Alberta's Personal Information Protection Act, Quebec's Private Sector Act, and Ontario's Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.